TALK OF CABINET CHANGES. Elkins as Secretary of War-Mr. Blaine and

The friends of S. B. Elkins are working to have him put at the head of the War Department to succeed Mr. Proctor, but it is understood to be by no means settled yet that he is 2 to get the appointment. There are a number of things to be considered in making this appointment to fill a cabinet vacancy, and there is said to be opposition in the cabinet to Mr. Elkins' selection.

that if he should retire from the cabinet noth-ing, not even his own indisposition to assume the role, could prevent his being regarded as an active candidate and, unless all political signs fail, there would then be no chance for any other candidate. Therefore it is said that Mr. Harrison will do all in his power to keep Mr. Blaine in the cabinet, even with the knowledge that the latter may accept a nomination if over helds. if extended to him unsought. AN ABSURD STORY.

The story to the effect that Mr. Blaine is permitting his friends and the independent American citizens who are for him without knowing him personally to "boom" him, merely so that other candidates will be kept out of the field and he can turn the nomination over to Mr. Harrison, is speken of as absurd on its face. It is not a common accusation against Mr. Blaine that he tricks his friends and permits himself lend himself to such a scheme as that does not know Blaine, and, I should imagine, knows very little of politics. Mr. Blaine is not a man

Mr. John S. Durham, the new minister, is a Philadelphian by birth, thirty-one years of age and graduated at the University of Pennsylvania in 1886. Until his appointment to San Domingo in May, 1890, he was a member of the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Billetin. He was recommended for his position at San Domingo by Charles Emory Smith, ex-Mayor Fitler. Postmaster General Wanamaker, ex-Senator Bruce and John N. Lynch. He is of light complexion and a Caucasian cast of countenance, and is reported in Philadelphia to be a young man of unusual ability, integrity and tact. The much talked of disaffection among the democrats in Hamilton county will not amount to anything. > RUSSIA'S MENACE TO TURKET, How the Dardanelles Incident is Viewed in France and Austria.

Paris, Sept. 5 .- There is no doubt that the attention of Europe is at the present moment That luckless country is at present a prominent factor in two imports it questions, both dangerous enough to furnish the spark which again painfully concentrated upon Turkey. dangerous enough to furnish the spark which may light the torch of war in Europe—the Dar-danelles incident and the question of the evacuation of Egypt.

The latter, having more direct and absorbing interest to France, is the most commented upon here. The newspapers of this city refer at length to the report circulating in official circles, the substance of which is that the first act of the new Turkish cabinet will be to bring forward the question of the evacuation of Egypt by the troops of Great Britian. It is who would prostitute his own popularity. He is not the man to do such a thing. Then what would be the result? Why, Harrison would be defeated from the start and Mr. Blaine would have sacrificed his friends and injured himself. Whatever understanding there may be between Mr. Harrison and Mr. Blaine it does not involve anything as stupid as that. If there is an understanding it is strictly honorable to both men."

Some of Mr. Harrison's friends have said, long since, that there is an understanding between the President and Mr. Blaine that they will not shake the ground under their party by will not shake the ground under their party by any rivalry on their part; that if there is no very earnest demand for Mr. Blaine's nomination he will not seek to make one, and if there is no ton he will not seek to make one, and if there is no constantinople and tender an apology upon the

The condemned men listened to the reading of their death warrants without any manifestations of anxiety. They prepared themselves by arranging their ties and coats and donning slippers and white gloves. Then they bade some of their fellows farewell and waiked steadily and firmly up the steps of the gallows attended by Sheriff Reed and assistants. Upon being asked if they had anything to say before death they each spoke for a few moments, stating that they were only suffering their just dues. They closed by entreating those present to ever live within the law and thus avoid their fate. They were then pinioned, the black caps were drawn over their faces, the ropes adjusted and at 1:51 o'clock the trap was sprung by the sheriff and the bodies fell. Every vessel on the great lakes not tied down by contracts for next week was called for, and still the shippers wanted more. Rates were advanced to the basis of 3 cents on corn and 3½ on wheat. The rush was understood to be owing to the fact that the corn clique, who had largely sold their holdings for October shipment from New York, decided that it was now time to get it started from Chicago.
